15. ERADICATION OF PESTS

An owner or occupier of an erf shall keep his erf free of white ants, borer and other wood destroying insects and to this end shall permit the Directors, the managing agents and their duly authorized agents or employees, to enter his erf from time to time for the purpose of inspecting the portion and taking such action as may be reasonably necessary to eradicate any such pests. The costs of the inspection and eradication of any such pests as may be found within the erf and replacement of any woodwork or other material forming part of such erf which may have been damaged by any such pests, shall be borne by the owner or occupier of the erf concerned.

16. SUNDRY PROVISIONS

- 16.1 The Association or its agents shall not be liable for any injury or loss or damage of any description which any owner or occupier of an erf or any member of his family, his employee or servant or relative, friend, acquaintance, visitor, invitee or guest may sustain, physically or to his or their property, directly or indirectly, in or about the common property or in the individual erven by reason of any defect in the common property, its amenities or on the individual erven or for any act done or for any neglect on the part of the Association or any of the Association employees, servants, agents or contractors.
- 16.2 The Association or its agents, representatives and servants shall not be liable or responsible in any manner whatsoever for the receipt or non-receipt and delivery or non-delivery of goods, postal matter or other property.
- 16.3 Bed and Breakfast and Guest House establishments are permissible provided that the owner obtains written consent from the Directors, whose consent cannot unreasonably be withheld, for operating such and that the Directors may prescribe various conditions in granting such approval. Any requirements from the Kouga municipality must also be adhered to. Should an erf not yet be developed and it is the owner's intention to build a guest house or bed and breakfast establishment then it must be clearly indicated on the plans which he submits for the Directors approval. All current establishments must also apply to the Directors for consent.
- 16.4 No auctions or jumble sales may be held on the common property or in the portions excluding the auctioning of the fixed property itself.
- 16.5 No firearms or pellet guns may be discharged on the common property;

- 16.6 No stones or other solid objects may be thrown or propelled on the common property;
- 16.7 Should any damage of whatsoever nature be caused to the common property by an owner or occupier, his family, his tenants, his visitors, or his pets or those of his family, his tenants or his visitors, the owner or occupier shall be liable to reimburse the Association for the cost of repairing such damage.

17. PETS

- 17.1 Other than a maximum of 2 (two) dogs, cats and birds in cages which may only be kept with the written permission of the Directors, which shall not be unreasonable withheld, no pets shall be kept or harboured within an erf or anywhere on the common property. Dogs must be kept behind boundary wall and must be on a leash anywhere on the common property.
- 17.2 The said dogs, cats and birds shall at no stage cause a disturbance (excessive barking) at any time to any owners or occupiers of erven, and the Directors shall, upon receipt of any complaint which they consider in their sole discretion as being valid, be entitled to revoke the right to house the dogs, cats and birds and to require that such be removed forthwith. The Directors shall seek legal recourse if required.
- 17.3 Pets must be properly controlled at all times. Dogs and cats must wear a tag with the owner's name and telephone number.
- 17.4 Cats are also not permitted to freely roam over the common property areas so as to prevent any danger to the fauna that these areas are trying to attract.
- 17.5 The removal of any pet excrement left on the owner's erf, any other owners erf or on the common property shall be the responsibility of the owner on whose erf the relevant pet lives. Sealed bags must be used.

18. PAYMENT OF LEVIES

- 18.1 All levies payable to the Association are due on the 7th day of the calendar month to which such levy relates.
- 18.2 Monthly levy statements will be sent to owners, or occupiers if so requested by owners, but failure to receive such statements will not absolve the owner from his responsibility to pay such levies by the due date.
- 18.3 Directors may impose penalties for failure to pay levies by due date. Any balance owing to the Association on the 7th day of any month will attract a penalty of 10% if not paid by the end of that month.
- 18.4 Should any balance on any levy account become 60 days in arrears the account will be handed over to attorneys for collection by the Directors or their appointed agents. All legal and related costs on the attorney and client scale of such collection will be for the account of the owner of the related erf.

19. GUARDS/GUARDHOUSE

The Association will plan for the construction of a 24 hour access controlled guard house in which event:

- 19.1 Security guards will be permitted to perform any personal services for owners or occupiers, subject to the approval of the Directors e.g. looking after vacant dwellings, and will not be responsible for guarding cars outside the development;
- 19.2 Security guards will not permit entry to the development if the erf owner/occupier does not respond to the intercom/telephone system, or the visitor is unable to contact the owner / occupier by cellphone. However, the security guards will try to assist the visitor where possible.

- 20.1 In the event of annoyance, aggravation or complaints occurring between owners and occupants, an attempt should be made by the parties concerned to settle the matter between themselves. This should be done with consideration and tolerance.
- 20.2 If, however, such problems cannot be resolved between the parties, then they should be brought to the notice of the Directors in writing. The Directors may require that a complaint is submitted to them in the form of an affidavit before they consider it and the Directors' decision in this regard will be final and binding.

22. BREACHES OF RULES

The Directors shall have the right in the event of a breach of a rule or guidelines by an owner, occupier his family, visitors, employees, contractors (including sub-contractors), and delivery persons (and without any notice should the Directors in their discretion deem that no notice is warranted) to take such action against the defaulting owner as they deem fit on behalf of the Association, including but not limited to:

- 22.1 remedying of the breach at the defaulting owners cost; and/or
- 22.2 the imposition of a fine, as the Directors deem appropriate.

Kindly note that the penalty structure will be as follows and will be raised on the defaulting owners levy account, which will be due and payable as soon as possible. The owner will have recourse against the tenant to recover the cost.

First violation	R500.00
Second violation	R750.00
Third violation	R1000.00

23. AMENDMENTS

The rules are subject to change from time to time, and the Directors are entitled to add on, amend or repeal the rules as deemed necessary to protect the interests of the Association, the common interest of owners and the integrity of Marina Village as a whole.
